

Teranet Announces new Director, Human Resources

TORONTO, ON – September 10, 2009 – Teranet Inc.'s President and CEO Jay A. Forbes announced today that Lauren Boulding will be joining the organization's leadership team as Director, Human Resources on September 28, 2009.

Ms. Boulding joins Teranet from Dun & Bradstreet where she served most recently as Vice President, Human Resources for Canada and Latin America. Her 20 year career includes experience in organizational development, talent management and human resource operations as well as sales and marketing, including senior positions at Sobeys, Gap Inc., Allstream (formerly AT&T), and Monsanto.

Ms. Boulding is a graduate of the University of Guelph and her professional qualifications include certification from the International Coaching Federation and in behavioral profiling.

"We are delighted to welcome Lauren to the Teranet executive team" said Mr. Forbes. "Her training and experience will lead us in developing an organization that will operate at peak effectiveness by helping staff maximize their contributions and by ensuring that Teranet continues to attract great performers."

About Teranet

Teranet offers e-services to the legal, real estate, government, financial and healthcare markets. Teranet provides exclusive access to Ontario's Electronic Land Registration System, enabling customers to conduct electronic registrations as well as title and writ searches relating to real property. Teranet has also leveraged its core competencies to create electronic service offerings in complementary areas. Teranet's comprehensive products and services include property information, transaction management, collateral risk management, geospatial information, workflow software and enterprise solutions. For more information about Teranet, visit www.teranet.ca.